10. Have you ever been convicted of a felony?

If "yes," please explain on a separate sheet.

Yes No

A "Yes" answer to the above question does not mean the automatic rejection of your application. Applicants should be aware that the licensing requirements of some states may mean that a criminal conviction could restrict your ability to practice in your chosen field. For example, students should be aware that the State of Georgia prohibits licensed psychologists from supervising felons. 510-5-.10. Therefore, practicum placement may not be possible for students with felony histories.
